

Basic Detail Report

Ghetto police assisting resident onto deportation train at Radogoszcz Station

Date

1944

Primary Maker

Henryk Ross

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

"Radogoszcz station from which ghetto Jews were transported to concentration camps, was situated outside the boundaries of the Lodz ghetto. The right to entry was only for workers at the station. I stole into the station with a group of railway workers. I was locked in a store from where I was able to, through a hole in the wood, photograph this deportation." -Henryk Ross

Dimensions

8.8 x 11.7 cm (3 7/16 x 4 5/8 in.)