Description

Scope and content: Series consists of letters to various correspondents from David Milne, and draft letters by David Milne. Correspondents or addressees include Mauksby Kimball, James (René) Clarke, Kathleen Milne ("Wyb"), Donald Buchanan, Carl Schaefer, Graham McInnes, Alan Jarvis and Douglas Duncan. Milne's letters to Clarke, in particular, often have the character of diary writing; he called these drafts "serial letters" and would eventually use some or all of their content in finished letters to Clarke. Some writings placed in Series 3: Diaries and other writings by David Milne, are very similar in character. Series includes a few instances of typescripts of Milne's letters made by Douglas Duncan.
