

Basic Detail Report

Without distinction of race the wounded are lying side by side, carefully tended by the R.A.M.C. - A doctor is here seen writing a few words home at a dictation from a man too badly wounded in the hand to write himself

Date

September 1917

Primary Maker

Ernest Brooks

Medium

gelatin silver print

Dimensions

16.5 x 21.5 cm