

Basic Detail Report

A Communion and Liberation

demonstration

Date

1972

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

AGO.143442 - AGO.150426 2022/56 - 2022/7040 Italian Press Photography Collection Various dates 6,985 photographs in 79 clamshell boxes The "Communion and Liberation" Movement (CL) was founded in 1969 by Luigi Giussiani, a Catholic priest, intellectual and educator and was a reaction to student left wing, secular ideas of the time. It also opposed the new direction of the Catholic church.

Dimensions

Overall: 30.3 x 20.4 cm (11 7/8 x 8 in.)