

Basic Detail Report

A man selling the Catholic magazine CL -

'Communion and Liberation'

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

The "Communion and Liberation" Movement (CL) was founded in 1969 by Luigi Giussiani, a Catholic priest, intellectual and educator and was a reaction to student left wing, secular ideas of the time. It also opposed the new direction of the Catholic church.

Dimensions

Overall: 30.3 x 20.3 cm (11 7/8 x 8 in.)