

Basic Detail Report

---

Pierre Clementi with Beba Loncar in a scene from the film 'Listen, Let's Make Love', 1968

Date

1968-1968

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Pierre Clementi was a French character actor. In 1972, he was arrested in Rome and charged with possession of LSD and cocaine. He served 17 months in an Italian prison before an appeals court acquitted and freed him. Lacking a resident visa, however, he was given 24 hours to leave Italy. Desanka "Beba" Lonar is a Serbian-Italian film actress. She appeared in 52 films between 1960 and 1982. She was born in Belgrade, Yugoslavia. Known for her film career during the 1960s and 1970s, she first became a star in native Yugoslavia before moving to Italy where she achieved considerable success.

Dimensions

Overall: 21.2 x 30.3 cm (8 3/8 x 11 7/8 in.)