

Basic Detail Report

Franco Zeffirelli and Valentina Cortese

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Valentina Cortese is an Italian actress nominated for an Academy Award in 1975 for her performance in Truffaut's Day for Night. Franco Zeffirelli is an Italian director and producer of operas, films and television. He is also a former senator (1994–2001) for the Italian centre-right Forza Italia party. Recently Italian researchers have found that he is one of the few distant relatives of Leonardo da Vinci.

Dimensions

Overall: 30.3 x 20.6 cm (11 7/8 x 8 1/8 in.)