

Basic Detail Report

A large crowd of protesters at a feminist demonstration held by the MLD

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

The MLD [the Women's Liberation Movement] was a federated movement of the Radical Party; the women's liberation movement was born after a series of themed conferences held in '70 by Massimo Teodori, Alma Sabatini and others, in a "Seminar of political work on women's liberation.

Dimensions

Overall: 20.6 x 30.3 cm (8 1/8 x 11 7/8 in.)