

Basic Detail Report

---

Marzabotto- A ruined house which was used by the Nazis as a concentration camp for civilians- here 19 people were shot: In the photo is one of the survivors, Mr. Mignani

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

The Marzabotto massacre was a World War II war crime consisting in a mass murder of at least 770 civilians by Nazis, which took place in the territory around the small village of Marzabotto, in the mountainous area south of Bologna.

It was the worst massacre of civilians committed by the Waffen SS in Western Europe during the war.

Dimensions

Overall: 21.3 x 30.3 cm (8 3/8 x 11 7/8 in.)