

Basic Detail Report

Members of the Italian political intelligentsia, including the politician Luciano Dal Falco, writer Alberto Carocci and the actor Victor Cavallo

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Luciano Dal Falco was an Italian politician, Democrat, Congressman and Senator and Minister of Health of the Republic in the governments Aldo Moro V and the Government of Andreotti III. Alberto Carocci was a writer and journalist. He moved to Rome in 1942 and joined the Action Party, demonstrating its opposition to fascism with resistance and, along with Alberto Moravia, he founded the magazine New Topics in 1953. Victor Cavallo was an Italian actor. He started his acting career on stage in 1974, in cinema worked for directors such as Bernardo Bertolucci and Francesca Archibugi. He died of Hepatitis C.

Dimensions

Overall: 21.2 x 30.3 cm (8 3/8 x 12 in.)