

Basic Detail Report

Trade unionists Antonio Pizzinato and

Bruno Trentin

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Trade unionist and politician Antonio Pizzinato with fellow trade unionist Bruno Trentin, who was also the secretary general of FIOM and CGIL Antonio Pizzinato was a politician and trade unionist. In 1964, he went to head the section of FIOM -CGIL of Sesto San Giovanni and, later, of the FIOM and the Chamber of Labour of Milan. His career within the larger union Italian culminated in the appointment as national secretary in 1984 and secretary general, after the long Secretariat of Luciano Lama, from 1986 to 1988, when he was replaced by Bruno Trentin. Bruno Trentin was a politician and trade unionist, and Secretary Generals of the FIOM and CGIL.

Dimensions

Overall: 24.2 x 18 cm (9 4/8 x 7 1/8 in.)