

Basic Detail Report

---

Elio Petri and Florinda Balkan during the filming of 'Investigation of a Citizen Above Suspicion'

Date

1970-1970

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Elio Petri was an Italian political filmmaker He directed four films which showed that he was one of the most acute, lucid and despairing analysts of the schizophrenia of our time. These films constitute, as it were, a portrait of all the facets and contradictions of Italian society: Investigation of a Citizen Above Suspicion (1970), the subject of which is the police-force. Florinda Bolkan is a Brazilian actress.

Dimensions

Overall: 30.2 x 24.3 cm (11 7/8 x 9 5/8 in.)