

Basic Detail Report

Professor Gerard Lutte, specialist in child

psychology

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Lutte is of Belgian origin, he was professor of developmental psychology at the University of Rome, focussing particularly on the life and struggles of the inhabitants of a township slum dwellers and doing social work with the most marginalised young people; He collaborates with solidarity movements and has promoted initiatives and concrete international solidarity, with particular reference to the situation in Central America.

Dimensions

Overall: 21.2 x 30.4 cm (8 3/8 x 12 in.)