Description

John Joseph Wright was an American cardinal of the Roman Catholic Church. He served as Prefect of the Congregation for the Clergy from 1969 until his death, and was elevated to the cardinalate in 1969. Luigi Traglia was an Italian Cardinal of the Roman Catholic Church. He served as Vicar General of Rome from 1965 to 1968, and Dean of the College of Cardinals from 1974 until his death. Traglia was elevated to the cardinalate in 1960. Prince Aspreno Colonna was the patriarch of one of Rome's oldest noble families. The prince was among the last of the Roman nobility to hold an honorary Vatican hereditary position. His title was prince assistant to the papal throne. Most of the titles held by the aristocracy were abolished by Pope Paul VI.
