

The Christian Democracy politician Publio

Fiori after being shot in the legs and thorax by a member of the Red Brigades

Date

1977-1977

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Publio Fiori is an Italian politician. He became a member of Christian Democracy, to which he belonged for much of his political career. In 1977 a commando of The Red Brigades (communist terrorists) shot him in the legs and thorax.

Dimensions

Overall: 20.4 x 30.3 cm (8 x 11 7/8 in.)