

Basic Detail Report

---

Luigi Malerba, Giorgio Manganelli and

Jacqueline Risset in discussion at an informal gathering

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Luigi Malerba born Luigi Bonardi, was an Italian author who wrote short stories (often written with Tonino Guerra), historical novels, and screenplays, and who co-founded the Gruppo 63, based on Marxism and Structuralism.

Jacqueline Risset is a poet, literary critic, translator and academic. From 1967-1982, she was a member of the editorial board of the journal Tel Quel. Giorgio Manganelli was a writer , translator , journalist , literary critic Italian , and one of the most consistent theory of the new avant-garde .

Dimensions

Overall: 20.5 x 30.3 cm (8 x 11 7/8 in.)