

Basic Detail Report

---

Politician Riccardo Lombardi talks to politician and civil rights activist Marco Pannella

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Riccardo Lombardi was an Italian politician. Lombardi was born in Regalbuto. He represented the Action Party in the Constituent Assembly of Italy from 1946 to 1948 and the Italian Socialist Party in the Chamber of Deputies from 1948 to 1983. Marco Pannella is an Italian politician. Engaged in the defence of civil rights in Eastern European countries, in 1968, he was arrested in Sofia for having distributed leaflets against the Communist regime. He is one of the first promoters and founders of the Green and ecologist political movements in Europe. Over the years, he has been engaged in Italy in the defence of civil rights as well as against the public financing of political parties and against corruption of Italian politics. Since the 1970s, Pannella has promoted a series of referendums on themes ranging from social to political issues, in particular on those relating to the legality of the State, the rule of law and to the administration of justice.

Dimensions

Overall: 18.5 x 24.3 cm (7 2/8 x 9 4/8 in.)