

Basic Detail Report

---

Politician and human rights activist Marco

Pannella and Adelaide Aglietta at a protest. A placard states 'Di regime Fine!'
'End of Regime!'

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Marco Pannella is an Italian politician. Engaged in the defence of civil rights in Eastern European countries, in 1968, he was arrested in Sofia for having distributed leaflets against the Communist regime. He is one of the first promoters and founders of the Green and ecologist political movements in Europe. Over the years, he has been engaged in Italy in the defence of civil rights as well as against the public financing of political parties and against corruption of Italian politics. Since the 1970s, Pannella has promoted a series of referendums on themes ranging from social to political issues, in particular on those relating to the legality of the State, the rule of law and to the administration of justice. Adelaide Aglietta was an Italian politician, deputy for the Radical Party between 1979 and 1985 (when she resigned) and 1987 to 1989. She was also a Member of the European Parliament from 1989 to 1999. Between 1 November 1990 and 18 July 1994 she was head of the Greens parliamentary group in the European Parliament.

Dimensions

Overall: 20.7 x 30.6 cm (8 1/8 x 12 in.)