

Basic Detail Report

---

Tina Aumont prepares to shoot a scene

from "The Metellus" directed by Mauro Bolognini

Date

1970-1970

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Maria Christina "Tina" Aumont was a French actress. She was of French Jewish and Dominican descent, born in Hollywood to actors Jean-Pierre Aumont and Maria Montez. She married actor and film director Christian Marquand in 1963, at the age of 17. Metello is a 1970 Italian drama film directed by Mauro Bolognini. It was entered into the 1970 Cannes Film Festival. It starred Massimo Ranieri as the title character. Mauro Bolognini was an Italian film and stage director known for his masterly handling of period subject matter.

Dimensions

Overall: 30.3 x 20.2 cm (11 7/8 x 8 in.)