

Basic Detail Report

Portrait of General Giulio Grassini, head of the Italian Secret Service

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Giulio Grassini was an Italian General. He was the first director of SISDE (Italian Secret Service). He joined the Masonic Lodge P2 and he was heard by the Parliamentary Commission of Inquiry into the P2 with regard to the involvement of Italian secret services in the kidnapping of President of the Christian Democrats, Aldo Moro.

Dimensions

Overall: 30.8 x 24.4 cm (12 1/8 x 9 5/8 in.)