

Basic Detail Report

---

Dress designer Federico Schuberth at a fish

market

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Dress designer Federico Emilio Schuberth at a fish market. Emilio Federico Schuberth (Naples, 1904 - Rome, 1972) was an Italian designer popular in the 1940s and 1950s. Schuberth was called the "tailor of the stars". His work was loved by many international stars like Princess Soraya, Rita Hayworth, Ingrid Bergman, Bette Davis, Brigitte Bardot, Sofia Loren, Gina Lollobrigida and Anna Magnani.

Dimensions

Overall: 30.2 x 21.2 cm (11 7/8 x 8 3/8 in.)