

Basic Detail Report

---

Giorgio Pisano of the MSI waving to crowds

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Giorgio Pisano was an Italian journalist and socialist politician. In 1947, in Como, he was one of the founders of the Italian Social Movement (MSI), becoming the first secretary of the federation. His professional career began in 1948 when he took the post of editor and correspondent of the weekly Meridian of Italy, a neo-fascist right weekly, directed by Franco De Agazio. In 1989 he broke away from the MSI to found the 'Fascism and Freedom Movement'.

Dimensions

Overall: 26 x 20.3 cm (10 2/8 x 8 in.)