

Basic Detail Report

---

A group of men from The Confederation of

Italian Industry

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

A group of men from The Confederation of Italian Industry. The General Confederation of Italian Industry (Italian: Confederazione generale dell'industria italiana), commonly known as Confindustria, is the Italian employers' federation and national chamber of commerce, founded in 1910. It groups together more than 113,000 voluntary member companies, accounting for nearly 4,200,000 individuals, and aims to help Italy's economic growth, which also helps its members prosper.

Dimensions

Overall: 24.2 x 36.1 cm (9 4/8 x 14 2/8 in.)