

Basic Detail Report

Two lawyers, De Cataldi and Miconi, during a hearing against the Mafia and Raffaele Cutolo's Nuova Camorra Organizzata (NCO)

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Raffaele Cutolo (born 1941) is an Italian crime boss and the charismatic leader of the Nuova Camorra Organizzata (NCO), an organisation he built to renew the Camorra. Cutolo has a variety of nicknames including "o Vangelo" (the gospel), "o Principe" (the prince), "o Professore" (the professor) and "o Monaco" (the monk). Apart from 18 months on the run, Cutolo has lived inside maximum-security jails or psychiatric prisons since 1963. He is serving multiple life sentences for murder.

Dimensions

Overall: 20.6 x 30.6 cm (8 1/8 x 12 in.)