

Basic Detail Report

The murderer Marino Vulcano. He committed many crimes, mostly murders of former partners, including one while she was pregnant, as well as extortion, but he is famous for marrying briefly a former vice-director of the prison that housed him, Rebibbia in Rome

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

The murderer Marino Vulcano. Marino Vulcano was a criminal who hit the headlines when he fell in love with and married the former vice-director of the prison in which he was incarcerated, the infamous Rebibbia, in Rome.

Dimensions

Overall: 21.1 x 30.3 cm (8 2/8 x 11 7/8 in.)