

Basic Detail Report

---

Protest march in Rome: 'Enough with the slums at Aquedotto Felice'

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Protest march in Rome: 'Enough with the slums at Aquedotto Felice', which refers to the shanty towns that have grown next to the aqueduct in the south-west of Rome since the 50s, and at the time were mostly inhabited by Italians who had moved to the city to find work, and by Yugoslav Roma families.

Dimensions

Overall: 21.1 x 30.3 cm (8 2/8 x 11 7/8 in.)