

Basic Detail Report

Members of the PCI Eugene Peggio, Franco

Ferri and Antonio Pesenti

Date

1969-1973

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Eugene Peggio was the economist of the Communist Party. He was elected in 1972 and remained in the House until 1987 Franco Ferri was a partisan , politician and teacher. He was a member of the Central Committee of the Communist Party PCI since 1969 and 1983, and member of the Chamber of Deputies in the eighth and ninth legislature. Antonio Pesenti was an economist and politician. He was a member of the Central Committee of the PCI

Dimensions

Overall: 21.2 x 30.4 cm (8 3/8 x 12 in.)