

Basic Detail Report

---

Portrait of Vito Miceli

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Vito Miceli was an Italian general and politician. He was chief of the SIOS (Servizio Informazioni), Italian Army Intelligence's Service from 1969 and the military intelligence service SID's head from October 18, 1970 to 1974. Vito Miceli was arrested in October 1974 on charges of "political conspiracy" concerning investigations about the Golpe Borghese "coup" attempt. He was acquitted of any wrongdoing in 1978. Miceli was a member of the masonic Propaganda Due. He later became deputy of Parliament for the neo-fascist Italian Social Movement (1976-1987).

Dimensions

Overall: 20.3 x 30.3 cm (8 x 11 7/8 in.)