

Basic Detail Report

---

Flilippo Micheli and Paolo Emilio Taviani at a Christian Democrat Party assembly

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Flilippo Micheli, a deputy for 46 years (1948-1994), Minister of State for Finance, Industry and Commerce, a member of the Christian Democrats in 1969 appointed him as national secretary Administrative Party. Paolo Emilio Taviani was an Italian political leader, economist and historian of the career of Christopher Columbus. On July 27, 1943 just before the fall of the regime, Taviani founded in Liguria the section of the “Partito-Cristiano-Sociale Democratico” (later the Christian Democrats, DC) bringing together young people from the Christian Social Movement with the older members of the Partito Popolare

Dimensions

Overall: 30.1 x 20.3 cm (11 7/8 x 8 in.)