

Basic Detail Report

---

American jazz musician George Adams

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

George Adams was an American jazz musician who played tenor saxophone, flute and bass clarinet. He is best known for his work with Charles Mingus, Gil Evans, Roy Haynes and in the quartet he co-led with pianist Don Pullen, featuring bassist Cameron Brown and drummer Dannie Richmond. He was also known for his idiosyncratic singing.

Dimensions

Overall: 20.2 x 30.6 cm (8 x 12 in.)