Description

Artists painting on freestanding panels in Piazza San Pantaleo in Rome. They're painting cartoons and propaganda murals against speculation in the trade markets, and were organised by the PCI (Partito Comunista Italiano). The Italian Communist Party was a communist political party in Italy. The PCI was founded as Communist Party of Italy on 21 January 1921 in Livorno, by seceding from the Italian Socialist Party (PSI). It changed its name in 1943 to PCI and became the second largest political party of Italy after World War II, attracting the support of about a third of the voters during the 1970s.
