

Basic Detail Report

Mario Capanna leader of the university student movement

Date

1968-1968

Primary Maker

Federico Patellani

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Mario Capanna (born 10 January 1945) is an Italian politician and writer. Born in Città di Castello, he studied Philosophy at the Catholic University of Milan, and was the leader of the Italian students' movement in the late 1960s and early 1970s. In 1969 he was attacked by exponents of the neo-Fascist Movimento Sociale Italiano.

Dimensions

Overall: 30 x 21.9 cm (11 7/8 x 8 5/8 in.)