

Basic Detail Report

---

Portrait of the lawyer Riello Pera, who ## defended accused terrorist Franco Freda

Date

1960-1975

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Franco Freda is a terrorist, publisher, solicitor and attorney a follower of neo-fascism and member of the Political Movement New Order . He was sentenced for a series of bomb attacks ( bombs of 25 April 1969 and summer 1969 train bombings ) made between the sixties and seventies as part of the so-called strategy of tension. Accused of organising the massacre of Piazza Fontana, it was finally acquitted for lack of evidence (so-called "formula doubtful") by the Assize Court of Appeal of Bari and that of Catanzaro .

Dimensions

Overall: 28.9 x 23.6 cm (11 3/8 x 9 2/8 in.)