Basic Detail Report

Socialist politician Mario Zagari

Date

1969-1979

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Mario Zagari was an Italian socialist politician, who served in the Italian parliament and in the European parliament as well as in the Italian governments in various capacities. At the beginning of the 1970s Zagari served as the minister of commerce and led the first Italian commercial delegation to China in 1971. He was the justice minister from 7 July 1973 to 23 November 1974. Then he became one of twelve vice president of the European parliament on 27 October 1976 and held the post until 18 January 1982.

Dimensions

Overall: 30.5 x 25.1 cm (12 x 9 7/8 in.)