

Basic Detail Report

---

Portrait of Luigi Gui, Guido Vedovato,

Giovanni Elkan and Carlo Donat-Cattin

Date

1969-1969

Medium

gelatin silver print

Description

Guido Vedovato was a military man who was appointed Chief of Staff of the Italian Army and Chief of Staff of Defense in 1968. Giovanni Elkan was a politician and member of the Christian Democracy Party. Carlo Donat-Cattin was an Italian politician and trade unionist. He was a member of Christian Democracy, he was several times minister of the Italian Republic. Luigi Gui was an Italian politician and philosopher. Gui was born in Padua (Veneto). He graduated in philosophy at The Catholic University in Milan. He was an officer of the Alpini corps of the Italian Army, and fought in USSR during World War II. Later, he was a member of the Italian Assemblea Costituente which later became the modern Italian Parliament. He was deputy and senator from 1948 to 1983. He has been Minister of Education, Minister of health, Minister of the Interior and Minister of Defense.