

Basic Detail Report

An Afghan soldier plays a flute while others peel potatoes on the front lines in the Howz-E-Madad area a day before a joint operation against Taliban insurgents with Canadian Forces in Zharay District, Kandahar Afghanistan which along with nearby Panjwa'i are the most volatile areas in the country and the scene of heavy fighting with Taliban insurgents up through 2010, which has become the site of some of the largest land battles in NATO's history

Date

November 26, 2007

Primary Maker

Louie Palu

Medium

pigment print

Dimensions

Overall: 50.8 × 61 cm (20 × 24 in.)